WATER, BASE, TUBE ISSUES IN ELECTION

Four Separate Areas, Inter-linked, Overlapping, Will Vote on Several Vital Proposals For Eastbay Zone

Oakland Holds Municipal Ballot Tomorrow; Alameda to Decide on Extension on Navy Base Offer

In four separate areas, inter-linked and overlapping, voters of the Eastbay will go to the polls tomorrow to make their decisions upon important issues and to elect candidates to office.

Oakland will have its municipal election at which time one commissioner and three school directors will be chosen.

The territory comprising the proposed Public Utility District, roughly, from Richmond to San Leandro, will vote upon the question of forming that district.

Alameda county will vote on the "Tide the Estuary" proposal.

Alameda will vote upon the request of the United States government for an extension of that city's gift of tidelands for naval purposes.

MANY APPEALS TO EASTBAY VOTERS.

Notwithstanding the fact that some of the "edges" have been taken off of the municipal election in Oakland because of the choice of mayor, a commissioner, and a school director at the primaries, all four of the elections are regarded as to utmost importance.

The Eastbay has never seen so varied and so momentous a combination of appeals for a full expression of sentiment.

In Oakland the ballot for municipal election will carry the names of the following:

For Commissioner No. 1: W. H. Edwards and W. J. Moorehead.

For School Director No. 2: H. S. Craig, Mrs. Nannie S. Kramer.

For School Director No. 3: J. F. Chandler and Nellie May Miller.

For School Director No. 4: (For extended term) John J. Allen, Jr., Mand E. Boyle.

In addition Oakland voters will express their decisions on the question of the utility district and estuary tube.

The Utility District Election will be held in the district which comprises the following cities and towns in the Eastbay: Richmond, Albany, El Cerrito, Berkeley, Emeryville, Oakland, Alameda, Piedmont, and San Leandro, an area including a population of 250,000 and a property value of approximately $200,000,000.

The voters will cast their ballots, simply, for or against the formation of the district.

CANDIDATES TO REPRESENT WARDS

What Eastbay Cities Will Decide in Tomorrow's Vote

OWING to the fact the proposed public utility district extends into Contra Costa county and does not include all of Alameda county, a new voting area is presented in one of tomorrow's elections. With the whole county voting on the estuary tube and separate elections in Oakland and Alameda, there is presented an unusual variety of ballots. The following shows the elections in which each of the cities will participate:

Oakland—Municipal, Water District, Tube the Estuary. Berkeley—Water District, Tube the Estuary. Alameda—Extension of Time in Grant of Tidelands for Naval Base; Water District, Tube the Estuary. Richmond—Water District. El Cerrito, Emeryville, Piedmont, Albany, San Leandro—Water District, and Tube the Estuary. Other Alameda county cities and towns—Tube the Estuary. The polls open at 6 o'clock in the morning and close at 7 o'clock in the evening.

FACULTY FACES RESIGNATIONS

Many Heads on U. C. Campus Quit and Others Will Soon Follow.

BERKELEY, May 7.—Wholesale resignations of faculty members from administrative positions on the Berkeley campus before Dr. W. W. Campbell assumes the presidency of the University of California on July 1 today loomed as a new development in the reorganization campaign of the Lick Observatory head.

Already university authorities have received these resignations, effective with the coming of the new administration:

Prof. William Carey Jones, dean of the law school.

Prof. Armin O. Leuschner, dean of the graduate division.

Prof. Henry R. Hatfield, dean of the faculties.

Other deans whose resignations are expected to be tendered as a mark of "courtesy" to the new executive, thus giving him a clean slate with which to begin work are:

Prof. Walter Morris Hart, summer session; Dr. Baldwin Woods, summer session; Los Angeles; Prof. Thomas M. Fugate, undergraduate division; and Dr. M. E. Deutsch, dean of the college of letters and science.

Reappointment of a number of these deans who have rendered faithful service to the university is expected in college circles. Prof. Leuschner and Prof. Hatfield are expected to be reappointed.

Prof. McMurray, who is scheduled for appointment as new dean of the law school at the university, is a graduate of the state institution, receiving his L. B. in 1893.

He first became associated with the university as a lecturer in law in 1902 and was promoted to his present position as professor of law in 1908.

That Prof. Orrin Kim McMurray, veteran member of the legal department, will succeed Prof. Jones as dean of the law school, is generally accepted in university circles.

BUDGET BILL INCREASES ARE VETOED

Governor Returns Amended Biennial Measure Without Approval: 49 Items Eliminated by Executive's Pen

Objections Hit Legislative Raises For Health Board, Rail Commission, Various Funds For State Schools

SACRAMENTO, May 7.—Governor Richardson today announced to the Assembly that he had eliminated from the budget bill a large number of items of appropriation and had reduced others.

There are 49 items put in by the legislature as amendments to the budget bill to which he objects. The Governor eliminates all of the specific references to recurrent appropriations and rests on the opinion of the attorney-general as to the general provisions in Section 1 of the act.

The Governor vetoed all of the increases made by the legislature, aggregating $1,170,049.68. He said:

"If the proponents of these amendments could have their way the budget total would probably have reached $125,000,000. The reduction and eliminations made by me bring the budget total to a figure $12,000,000 less than the $91,865,000 of appropriations of 1921."

CLAIMS SAVING OF MILLION DOLLARS.

In vetoing the increases made by the legislature he says:

"All of these increases are returned to you without my approval, thus saving the taxpayers, who ultimately pay every dollar of the tax, more than one million dollars."

The total of the budget after the Governor had finished his vetoing is $79,744,336.55, according to his figures.

The raises made by the legislature and which the Governor has vetoed are State board of health, railroad commission, industrial farm for delinquent women, teachers' colleges and California Polytechnic school. The Industrial Accident Commission was cut $14,000 as that amount was added in the original budget in anticipation of work to be done in making inspection, but the legislature having failed to approve the consolidation plan, that amount is unnecessary.

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION FUND CUT.

The Governor has also cut down the appropriation of the superintendent of public instruction for printing from $30,000 to $25,000, claiming that that amount is sufficient. The Governor also vetoed the proposition of allowing the superintendent of public instruction one per cent from the appropriations for the teachers' college "on the ground that it was unnecessary and a willful waste of the money of the taxpayers. The director of education has an ample amount to run his department if it is put on an efficient and business basis."

The Governor reduced the allowance for the California School for the Deaf and Blind to the original figure, and says that the amount allowed "is ample for the support of this institution, which has been more liberally treated by the budget than by any other in the history of California." He reduced the appropriation for buildings to $80,000, his original figure, "for the reason that it is not expedient to build more than one building during the next biennial period, even if the State had sufficient funds with which to build more. The lack of buildings for this institution is due to the failure of those responsible to care for it at the last session of the legislature."

RAIL COMMISSION FUND IS REDUCED.

The Governor reduced the appropriation for the railroad commission to the original amount on the ground that that was ample. He says that if more engineers are needed there is an item of $20,000 for extra help and other positions which can be eliminated. He says he proposes to ask the State board of Control to make a survey of the railroad commission, in the interests of economy and efficiency, and winds up with the following:

"If we had a few men on the railroad commission, like the late John M. Eshelman that department could function with at least $100,000 less than the amount herewith allowed."

Twenty-five Die In Cuban Wreck

HAVANA, May 7.—(By Associated Press.)—Twenty-five persons were reported to have been killed and more than fifty injured in a head-on collision between Hersey Electric railway trains near Camal, province of Matanzas, today. No Americans are reported as being among the casualties.

Reference in the letter to the longshoremen's strike along the waterfront, the authorities said, indicated it was written by the L. W. N.

Chinese Hold Americans for Million Ransom; Three Californians Reported As Captives; U. S. and Britain Intervene to Save Victims

3 BAY MEN BEING HELD BY OUTLAWS

Major Pinger, J. A. Henley and Leon Friedman Were On Train When Attacked and Are Now Prisoners

Wife of Major, Daughter of Berkeley Resident, Was With Husband On Vacation Trip Through China

At least three persons known in San Francisco and the Eastbay region are reported to have been held captive by Chinese bandits at the Shanghai-Peking express when it was held up by bandits.

One is Major Roland W. Pinger, University of California graduate, and it is believed that his wife and two children may have been with him at the time of the hold-up.

Leon Friedman, formerly of San Francisco, and Jerome Arthur Henley, 641 Post street, San Francisco, are also reported to be among those held captive by the bandits. Others among the passengers were Miss Lucy C. Aldrich of New York City, sister-in-law of John D. Rockefeller Jr., and daughter of the late U. S. Senator Nelson W. Aldrich.

Some of the reports stated that a man named Roland W. Pinger, University of California graduate, and it is believed that his wife and two children may have been with him at the time of the hold-up.

At the war department in Washington it was stated today that there was no army officer by that name stationed in the Philippines. It was believed possible that mention of such a name was due to a confusion in the name Roland W. Pinger of the ordnance department, who is in China accompanied by his family.

MRS. PINGER WAS BERKELEY GIRL.

Major Pinger with his wife and two children, Roland Jr., aged 9, and Edward, aged 3, left Manila on May 27 for Tientsin for a two months' vacation in the mountains of that region.

Mrs. George H. Blacker, 3211 Blake street, Berkeley, mother of Mrs. Pinger, said today that the last word she had received from her daughter was when she and her husband and their children sailed from Manila for China. She said that Mrs. Pinger was coming home to Berkeley on the June boat, and that her husband would follow her later on, when he had completed two years of service in the islands.

Pinger graduated from the University of California with the class of 1919 in the College of Mechanics. He won his first commission through his activities in the Student Army Training Corps on the campus. He is a member of the Tau Beta Pi honor society. His wife, Miriam Blacker, also is a former student of the University of California.

She was a member of the class of 1912. The Pingers were married December 30, 1913 at Berkeley. The Blacker family is a well known pioneer family of Berkeley.

Associated Press despatches state that the residence of Pinger's mother is given in the department records as 4206 Harriet avenue, Minneapolis.

FRIEDMAN KNOWN IN SAN FRANCISCO.

resident of San Francisco. He and his brother, Max Friedman, are in the garage business at Shanghai.

Max Friedman was manager for Ruth Law, aviatrix, directing her appearance in the principal American cities. They were seen. Since that time the brothers have been agents for American motor cars, reported to have built up a big business.

Word from Washington today stated that State Department records show that Jerome Arthur Henley, 641 Post street, San Francisco, held a passport to visit China. He is believed to be the J. A. Henley included in the list of Americans on the train.

Although they had no official list of Americans involved in the raid, Washington officials today checked over carefully the lists of names carried in press despatches and sought to establish the facts so far as possible from passports and other records.

HORRORS OF RAID ARE TOLD BY WRITER WHO MADE ESCAPE

By LLOYD LEHRBAS, American Newspaperman Who Made Sensational Escape from Bandits Who Wrecked Shanghai-Peking Express and Captured Passengers. (Written for and copyright, 1923, by International News Service.)

SHANGHAI, May 7.—At 24 in the aid of their wives and children.

Miss Lucy Aldrich of New York was captured by a ragged bandit who wore a queue around his head. The sister-in-law of John D. Rockefeller Jr., was roughly treated by her captor. She was last seen walking barefooted through the fields with other women still captive under heavy guard. They were being guarded on by the bandits.

Chinese soldiers arrived but slowly, to pursue the bandits. The first arrivals desired to await reinforcements.

My clothes and money gone, I boarded a Shanghai train to return home. I met a French priest who told me that 500 bandits held a big ox feast the night before the holdup to plan the hold operation.

WOMEN IN BARE FEET ARE MAINTAINED AWAY.

There I could see women in nightgowns and their bare feet and men in pajamas walking ahead through the fields and toward the mountains. The bandits were carrying loot they had taken from the train on their shoulders.

When an auto came up to the train, the women were carried up their shoulders. I made a break for liberty. The tall grain in the field was my salvation. I fell upon my stomach and for three hours crawled upon my hands and knees through the waving grain.

I then, by detour, made my way back to the looted train. There I found one dead—an Englishman—who had been shot through the jaw, and two escaped Americans.

With the coming of daylight, Mrs. Allen, wife of Major Allen of the United States army; Mrs. Pinger, wife of Major Pinger of Manila, and her son, clad only in nightgowns, and with bleeding feet, arrived exhausted.

They told us they had walked five hours barefoot in the roughest sort of country. They were beaten and slapped by the bandits as they faltered from pain and exhaustion, the brigands attempting to make them continue their march toward the mountains.

State and War Departments Plan to Send American Garrison at Tientsin to Relieve Those Held Prisoners

Concerted Action by Great Britain and This Country May Force China to Make Reparation For Injuries

PEKING, May 7 (9 p. m., Peking time).—(By United Press.)—America and Great Britain tonight intervened in behalf of the American and British citizens kidnaped by Chinese bandits Sunday.

BANDITS' YELLS, FLIGHTING CHILDREN.

Surrounded by the brigands and amid scenes of wild confusion, to the music of wild yells of the bandits and the frightened cries of women and children, the prisoners were hustled away.

Their captors forced them to march briskly over the rough country toward the hill fastnesses where they planned to hold them.

The refugees believe that the captives were forced to march in the midst of the bandits for many hours through a desolate and forbidding country, far from roads and habitation.

Chinese railway officials here received a report that Miss Lucy Aldrich, sister-in-law of John D. Rockefeller Jr., and Miss MacFayden were reported to be ill and suffering from exposure. These women are at Lin Cheng to which consuls from Tien Tsin, Shanghai and Nanking are speeding with physicians.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(By Associated Press.)—The possibility of action by American troops to relieve the Americans held captive by bandits in Shanghai province, China, was discussed today at a conference between Secretary Hughes and Acting Secretary Davis of the War Department. Afterward Davis announced that the War Department stood ready to back up with armed forces any decision reached by the State Department or by the council of foreign ambassadors in Peking.

It was intimated that a determination on the part of the Peking council contemplating concerted action by the foreign powers against the bandits would cause no surprise here.

PEKING, May 7.—(By United Press.)—Two Americans and one Englishman are reported to have been shot when government troops attacked the bandits holding more than a score of foreigners as hostages.

The government troops began closing in, the bandits are declared to have made a human barricade of their prisoners. Facing the foreigners in front of them, the bandits defended themselves with a brisk return rifle fire in response to the attack of the soldiers.

Exposed thus to the fire of the soldiers, who were endeavoring to rescue them, two Americans and one Englishman fell.

PEKING, May 7 (By United Press).—One million dollars ransom is demanded by the Chinese bandits for the safe return of the foreigners, including many Americans, who were kidnaped Sunday after their train was wrecked in the wilds near Lin Cheng.

The demand for the ransom was brought in from the bandits by an aged Chinese, who had been taken prisoner with others on the train; but was released upon condition of his delivering the message.

In addition to the million-dollar payment, the bandits set forth full terms under which this will be accepted. The first condition is that the bandits be assured of freedom from attack by troops while negotiations for the return of the prisoners are in progress.

The second condition is that full pardon be granted the outlaws upon completion of the negotiations, payment of the money and return of the prisoners.

The terms have been transmitted to the government, but it is reported as certain that they will be immediately rejected.

SEVERAL ISSUES

MARK ELECTION

CONFUSING AFFAIR

Voters Will Have to Take Care to Properly Mark Ballots

All the issues, Oakland and Alameda each have three elections; Berkeley two; and Richmond one. Parts of the county are not to vote in the water district and other parts will vote both in the water district and tube election. Because of the new public utilities district law passed at the last session of the legislature Richmond, in another county, participates in the district plan.

Counting Return Held Huge Task

Preparations for joint city-county election returns in the city hall are being made by City Clerk M. E. Sturges as a result of the double election which will happen within the Oakland city limits. There are four city contests. These are the fight for a commission and three school directorships. In all, there are eight names on the city ballot. The compilation of this election, according to Sturges, is simple. But there are also two other propositions, the water district and the water tube proposition. The former, with its long list of contending candidates for the fire directorships in the water district, is expected to be a complicated and arduous affair, especially as the county courthouse is expected to handle all county returns for precincts outside of the city of Oakland.

Every return for the city of Oakland.

Alameda Kiwanians To Hold Luncheon

ALAMEDA, May 7.—With President E. K. Taylor presiding, Alameda's newly organized Kiwanis Club will hold its first official luncheon to be followed by a brief business session next Wednesday noon in the Eagles' clubhouse on Alameda avenue, it was announced today.

Plans for the future development of the club will be formulated and arrangements discussed for the celebration of charter night in the immediate future, according to Taylor.

AMERICANS HELD

Shanghai-Peking express, capturing seventeen Americans and twelve other foreigners, including subjects of England, France and Italy.

Disregarding the ultimatum of the bandits that the captives would be killed unless pursuit was abandoned, a great army has been gathered from four provinces to take part in the chase.

The bandit army today had increased from the estimated 1000 who wrecked the train and captured its passengers to 8000, having been strengthened by additions of well-armed disbanded troops and notorious bandits.

One American is reported to have been killed by a shot during continuous fighting last night between the bandits and the pursuing army, which is reported to have encircled the bandits.

WOMEN REPORTED FREED BY CAPTIVES.

All of the captured women, including Miss Lucy C. Aldrich of New York; her companion, Miss McFadden, and a maid, are reported to have been released. This report has not been fully confirmed, the first report stating that only two women had been released.

Of the 300 passengers aboard the express train—one of China's crack trains—only six foreigners and twenty-seven Chinese escaped the bandit horde which surrounded the train as it left the tracks at the point in Shantung province selected by the bandit chieftains for the holdup.

Despite the reports of the release of Miss Aldrich, no direct word has yet been received from her. She is on a tour around the world from New York via India and had visited here for ten days. She had intended going to Peking, Japan and then to Europe.

ROBERT SCRIPPS AMONG CAPTIVES.

The Americans aboard the train included in addition to Miss Aldrich, Robert Scripps, American newspaper publisher, touring the Orient; Major Charles Bridge; a party of three by the name of Pratt; a Mr. Carpenter; Lloyd Lehigh, former American newspaperman of Chicago, and J. E. Powell, former professor of journalism at the University of Missouri now a correspondent in China.

A relief train has been rushed from Tientsin and advices from Peking today stated that American Minister Jacob Gould Schurman had left there for Shantung province.

Partial List of Americans Taken Prisoner

WASHINGTON, May 7.—An official list of Americans "believed to have been" on the train held up by bandits was reported by Minister Schurman at Peking and General Edwin S. Cunningham at Shanghai, as follows:

Yerred Lehigh, L. C. Solomon, L. C. Friedman, J. A. Henley, Miss Lucy Aldrich, and maid, Miss C. McFadden, Major and Mrs. Finger, and two sons, Major and Mrs. Allen, and son, Mr. Levy, Robert Scripps, J. B. Powell, Miss Schoenberg, Allen Child.

The department's advices also said that Lehigh was reported to have escaped, and that Mrs. Finger and Mrs. Allen were rescued by guards and are now in Tientsin.

ence to investigate the affair. French, Italian and English consular officials have departed for the scene of the holdup.

The bandits with their captives are believed to be fleeing for Tushan Hu lake, a wild rendezvous for outlaws, in the mountains of South Shantung.

The bandit army which derailed the express train near Hsuehchou Sunday morning, killing one foreigner and wounding six Chinese, was made up of discharged Anhwei troops.

All reports received here place the number of bandits engaged in the holdup at about 10,000. From the meager first-hand reports received here it is believed they were in ambush on each side of the track of the Tientsin-Peking railroad, from which a rail had been removed. As the train, which was first class, crashed into the ditch, they surrounded the train, firing hundreds of shots. After looting the train and its passengers, all save a handful that escaped in the confusion were made captives.

News of the bandit exploit spread like wildfire. Scarcely had the news troops been rallied for pursuit, according to reports reaching here, when additional disbanded soldiers and bandits began flocking to the banners of the band that had made "the big haul."

The soldiers were being sent to their homes in Shantung province by the Tuchen of Anhwei and they retained their arms. Their leaders are believed to have been notorious bandits operating on the Shantung-Honan border who have in recent months become increasingly active and bold.

COUP TIMED FOR DAY OF HEAVY TRAVEL

Working with secret agents in Shanghai, they are believed to have timed their coup for a day when foreign travel was especially heavy on the Shanghai-Peking express. This was true Sunday, the train carrying in addition to many tourists, a large party including journalists who were en route to inspect the $2,000,000 dike repair project on the Yellow river. This inspection trip accounted for the presence on the train of Lehigh, editor of a Shanghai paper; Powell, the correspondent, and Scripps, American publisher, who is on a round-the-world tour.

Pursuing troops are being drawn from the four provinces of Shantung, Chihli, Kiangsu and Anhwei. Only those known to be thoroughly loyal are being employed.

The bandits are believed to have been hard pressed in the night fighting, this accounting for their ultimatum that unless pursuit was abandoned, the foreigners would be killed.

The holdup is regarded in local circles as proving the danger of discharging soldiers without first providing them with employment and thoroughly disarming them.

The holdup aroused the greatest indignation and alarm in Shanghai foreign colonies.

Rescued Women Tell Graphic Tale

TIENSIN, May 7 (By the Associated Press).—A relief train arrived here this morning with a party of foreigners who escaped when the Shanghai-Peking express train was held up yesterday by a large force of bandits in Lincheng. In the party were Robert Allen and Mrs. Finger and the latter's youngest son.

The women stated that their husbands, who are majors in the eldest son, were kidnapped. The Americans told a graphic tale of their experiences. The bandits, they said, started firing upon the train before it was derailed and swarmed about it, smashing the windows with their hatchets when it was brought to a standstill.

Then they entered the cars and robbed the passengers of valuables, visiting some of the coaches three times to be sure of missing nothing. One foreigner was killed, but his identity was not known to the party arriving here.

It was nearly two hours after the train had been stopped that a warning whistle was blown and the bandits decamped with their captives. A few of the foreigners es-passengers are now believed to be in the bandit camp, scantily clad in their night clothes and whatever garments they picked up as they fled from the cars.

All passengers were asleep when the train ran into the ditch with only a slight jar, the refugees said. The fact that the train was proceeding slowly and that there was a very light impact led to belief that trainmen were forewarned.

Immediately the brigands swarmed aboard, turned off the electric lights and began firing rifles and revolvers in the corridors. Bandit squads smashed into the compartments by the light of candles and leveled bayonets at the passengers, ordering all to stand still or be killed. The outlaws then took all the baggage and personal belongings, their search for loot lasting two hours.

PASSENGERS WERE ONLY SCANTILY CLAD.

All passengers except six Dutch and Italians and a Chinese woman, who hid under berths, were driven out in their night clothes. Only a few were permitted to wear wraps. They were marched away over the lowlands toward the mountains.

A Chinese woman who got into camp by hiding in the long grass, but more than twenty were carried off, including six women.

Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Finger were left behind when it was found they were unable to keep up with the fast pace set by the bandits.

Major Finger and his wife kept in touch for a time by shouting to each other, but the voice of the major, who was ahead, grew fainter and finally ceased and his wife returned to the train with her young-er son.

It is estimated that about 115 passengers were kidnapped, most of them in their night attire and without their baggage. They were forced to walk barefoot over the broken glass in the vicinity of the train and were hustled by their brutal guards over the rough country as the bandits fled in fear of pursuit.

Soldiers arrived at the scene soon after the departure of the raiding party and the government ordered the Tuchen (military governors) of the neighboring provinces im-

Mrs. Finger and Mrs. Allen, barefoot, were forced to walk with the hostages for two miles. Then they became exhausted and fell. The brigands allowed them to drop behind.

The women, seeing distant lights, walked to them and found a village where they met the trainmen who had fled during the attack. The trainmen are now claiming the honor of having rescued them.

The country where the prisoners are held is barren and devoid of comfortable shelter and clean food. The Chinese populace and the government seem only mildly concerned. Foreign officials hint that the abduction was a political maneuver.

SUMMER SEASON
UP LIGHT OPERA IS SCHEDULED

Prominent Singers Signed
For Productions Covering
Ten-Weeks' Period.

Sponsored by a group of society leaders and influential citizens, Oakland is to have a summer season of light opera, according to plans announced yesterday through the Eastbay Opera association. The program calls for the services of Gaetano Merola, the famous conductor and impresario. Other names mentioned in connection with the project are Mabel Riegelman, the famous grand opera prima donna, Jefferson De Angelis, comedian, James Liddy, an Oakland boy, last seen in the Henry W. Savage production of "The Merry Widow"; Georgia Knowlton, Paula Ayers, a nationally-known contralto, and Harry Pheil, a tenor, recently featured by the Dunbar Opera company. Among the local people appearing as sponsors for the project are Mrs. Wallace M. Alexander, Miss Annie Florence Brown, Miss Matilda Brown, Mrs. Josephine M. Fernald, George Friend, Dr. Herbert J. Samuel, Joseph J. Rishborough, Mrs. Oscar Fitzgerald Long, Mrs. Erge A. Majors, Mrs. Newton Koser, Mrs. Frank Colton Havens, Mrs. Robert Lewis Hill, Mrs. W. H. Langdon, Mrs. Thomas G. Hutt, Mrs. Frederick Kahn, Miss Elizabeth Westgate, Mrs. Harman Kruse, Mrs. A. S. Lavenson, Miss Louise A. Maguire, Mrs. Thomas Mitchell Potter, L. Cameron Fraser and Mrs. Oscar Sutor. Louis B. Jacobs has been engaged as managing director and George Lask to produce the operas. The engagement will open at the Auditorium theater for a ten weeks' period starting July 9. Among the well known operas to be produced are "Naughty Marietta," "Sam," "The Blue Paradise," "Kauka," "The Pink Lady," and "Sweethearts." Offices of the association have been established at the Hotel Oakland.

FESTIVAL NEEDS
FANTASY NAME

Further information for the guidance of those competing for the $100 cash prize for a name for the Oakland Festival Association was given out yesterday by Max Horwinski, chairman of the board of governors. "Our first event will be called the 'Laguna Fiesta' and will take place on Lake Merritt during the month of September and will be of such a magnitude that it will claim not only city-wide but State and even national attention. We are confident that it will be as big in its way as the famous Ak-Sar-Ben of Omaha, or the Mardi Gras in New Orleans," said Horwinski. "What the board of governors of the association back of the project want is a name that will reflect such an enterprise. For instance, in Omaha the organization back of the Ak-Sar-Ben festival is called the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, and the organization back of the Kansas City festival is called the Priests of Palas. We want a name that will contain the elements of fantasy as embodied in these two samples and yet at the same time express the purpose and intent of the organization." Names should be sent in before May 19 and addressed to the Oakland Festival Association, Fourth Floor, Henshaw building.

Boy Scout Leader
To Be Guest Here

Lorne W. Barclay, director of education for the national council of Boy Scouts, will be the guest of the Oakland Scout organization at a dinner at the American grill on Fifteenth street Wednesday evening. Scoutmasters, members of the Scout council, and all those interested in boy work have been invited to hear the message which he will deliver at that time. Barclay set and operated a Boy Scout camp in the devastated area of France after the war, and is said to have done much to put scouting in that country on a sound basis. He has done much to develop to its present efficiency the biennial national conference of scout executives. He has helped to bring the message of scouting to the churches and secure their co-operation in the Scout program. He helped to train 7000 scoutmasters.

IDENTIFIED.
A stranger walked into a Houston bank the other day and presented a draft to the cashier for payment. "You will have to be identified," said the cashier, "by someone who knows your name to be Henry B. Saunders." "But I don't know anybody in Houston," said the stranger. "Here's a lot of letters addressed to me, and a telegram from my firm, and a lot of business cards. Won't they be identification enough?" "I am sorry," said the cashier, "but while I have no doubt that you are the party, our rule is to require better identification." The man unbuttoned his vest and showed the initials, H. B. S., on his shirt. "Does that go?" he asked. The cashier shook his head. "You might have Henry B. Saunders' letters, and his papers, and also his shirt on, without being the right man. We are forced to be very careful." The stranger tore open his shirt front, and exhibited a large mustard plaster, covering his entire chest. "There," he shouted, "if I wasn't Henry B. Saunders, do you suppose I would wear one of his mustard plasters stuck all over me?" Do you think I would carry my impersonation of anybody far enough to blister myself to look like him? Gimme tens and fives now, I haven't got time to fool any more." The cashier hesitated and then shoved out the money. After the stranger had gone the official rubbed his chin gently and said softly to himself, "That plaster might be somebody else's after all, but no doubt it's all right."

THE APPLE.
A youth held in his hand a round, red luscious apple. "Eat," said the Spirit, "it is the apple of life." "I will have none of it," said the youth, and threw it far from him. "I will have success. I will have fame, fortune, power, and knowledge." "Come, then," said the Spirit. They went together up steep and rocky paths. The sun scorched, the rain fell upon them, the mountain mists clung about them, and the snow fell in beautiful and treacherous softness, obscuring the way as they climbed. Time swiftly passed and the golden locks of the youth took on the whiteness of the snow. His form grew bent with the toll of climbing, his hand grew weak and his voice quivering and high. The Spirit had not changed and upon his face was the inscrutable smile of wisdom. They stood at last upon the topmost peak. The old man that was the youth said to the Spirit, "Give me the apple of Success. I have come upon the heights where it grows and it is mine. Be quick, for there is a strange dimness in my sight." The Spirit gave him an apple round and red and fair to behold. The man bit into it and found rottenness and bitter dust. "What is this?" he asked. "It was the apple of Life," said the Spirit. "It is now the apple of Success."

ONE CONSOLATION.
Breakfast was over and Adam had gone to his daily occupation of pasting the names of the animals on their cages. Eve took the parrot to one side and said, "It was this way. He made a big talk about those biscuits not being good at breakfast." "And what did you say," asked the parrot. "I told him there was one consolation; he couldn't say his mother ever made any better ones."

Social Studies Club
Elects Officers
Congressman J. H. MacLafferty and A. C. Olney, state commissioner of secondary education and member of the state board of education, were the speakers at a meeting of the Social Studies Club at the Hotel Harrison Saturday noon. The meeting was attended by about sixty teachers from the high schools of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and San Francisco. Roy Granger, retiring president of the club, who is supervisor of social studies in the Oakland school, presided. New officers elected are: A. A. Gray, Berkeley High school, president; Frederick Jenks, Fremont High school, vice-president; Miss Anna Fraser, Garfield school, Berkeley, secretary.

BURGLARS ENTER
FIVE HOMES IN
EASTBAY SUNDAY

Absence of Families Makes
Houses Easy to Rob
Over Week-End.

Women's clothing valued at about $300 was stolen by burglars who broke into the home of Emil Frisch, 675 Santa Rey street, yesterday. The entrance was gained by prying a rear window. The thief took two furs and four dresses. The police investigated four other burglaries during the last twenty-four hours. In each case the family was away at the time the burglars broke into their homes. Dr. P. N. Jacobson, 902 Longridge Road, notified the police that his home was entered by using a pass key. A purse containing $20 was taken. A collection of old coins, $25 in currency and stick pin were stolen from the home of James D. White, 1418 Adeline street. P. E. Yaeger, 174 Ninth street, reported that his home was ransacked by burglars. The burglars took a suit case, gold ring, stick pin and two dozen eggs. While the family of George Walker, 415 Van Buren avenue was away for the week-end the place was ransacked.

Mrs. Jones, Old Time
Resident, Is Dead

Mrs. J. D. Jones, whose residence in California gates back to the early 60s, died yesterday following a sudden attack at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. G. Deardorf, 2153 Vine street. She is survived by Mrs. Deardorf, a son, Dwight Jones, a realtor of Oakland, and a brother, Frank Allen, of San Francisco. Mrs. Jones was 80 years old. She was married to J. E. Jones, pioneer mining man of Reno, immediately upon her arrival from her eastern home.

Berkeley Motorists Drop Into Harbor, Three Periled; Three Dead, Twelve Injured in Week-end Auto Wrecks

AUTO PLUNGES THROUGH GATES INTO ESTUARY

Man and Two Young Women
Undergo Terrified Fight for Life

When a large touring car crashed through the gates of the Webster street bridge yesterday at 2 a. m., as the structure was open, and plunged into the estuary, carrying its occupants with it, a young man and two young women underwent a terrific fight for life under water, and today are suffering from serious injuries.

Their clothing became entangled in parts of the machine which rested on the bottom of the estuary, under about 40 feet of water. The three struggled for more than a minute before they were able to reach the surface and be rescued. The fact that two of the accident's victims were expert swimmers is believed to have been responsible for their escape.

The occupants of the car were: GEORGE ALEXANDER, 23 years old, automobile salesman, 1831 San Pablo avenue; body and face bruised.

MISS EDITH DITMER, 22 years old, an accountant, and a graduate of the University of California with the 1922 class; 2317 Fulton street, Berkeley; face cut, suffering from shock.

MISS MILDRED SCOTT, 19, a stenographer and graduate of the Oakland High school three years ago; 1502 Fruitvale avenue; possible fracture of skull, suffering from shock.

After extricating himself from the steering wheel, Alexander, who had been driving, managed to reach Miss Scott who was unable to swim, and carried her to the surface.

LIGHTS TURNED ON WATER.

When scores of automobile drivers, who were at the scene of the accident waiting for the span to close, heard the crash of the safety gates and saw the automobile plunge down and disappear in the estuary with a splash, they turned their headlights on the water, and with in this circle of concentrated light the first occupant of the car came up to the surface. The persons who saw the accident rushed down to the shore and willing hands pulled the victims from the estuary. It was feared for a time that Alexander and Miss Scott had been drowned, as the current swept them west of the bridge.

Alexander was driving Miss Scott and Miss Ditmer to their homes from a party in Alameda. Miss Scott was in front and Miss Ditmer was sitting in the rear seat.

FAILS TO NOTICE GATES.

According to the driver, he did not notice the red danger signal or that the gate across the approach to the bridge was closed. The bridge had been swung to permit the exit from the inner harbor of the tugboat zone.

The automobile landed upright in the muck on the estuary's bed, the three occupants pinned in by the top.

Instantly the individuals began their fight for life against tremendous odds.

CLOTHING CAUGHT IN AUTO.

Miss Ditmer managed to open a door and then found to her horror that her clothing had become entangled in the ribs of the machine's canopy. She continued to fight gamely and when almost exhausted managed to free herself, and rose to the surface. She is a good swimmer and swam to a cluster of piles a hundred feet east of the bridge, where she waited to be rescued.

At the same time, Miss Scott was to the surface. She struggled with him and they sank. He succeeded in pulling her up to the surface and caught a lifeline which had been thrown to them by Captain Steele in the tugboat zone.

The struggles of Miss Scott and Alexander lasted for nearly half an hour before they were hauled to safety.

AUTOISTS PILE UP LONG LIST OF ACCIDENTS

Russian's Skull Fractured in
S. F. Crash; 4 Machines in One Collision.

One man is dead and twelve persons are suffering from injuries today as a result of automobile accidents during the week-end in the bay region.

JOHN BATARFF, 45, a Russian sailor, died early today at the San Francisco hospital from a fractured skull and internal injuries, received when the automobile he was driving collided with the machine of Dewey Trant, 225 Mississippi street, at Seventeenth street and Potrero avenue, San Francisco. Trant was arrested on a charge of manslaughter. Batarff resided at 2112 Twenty-second street, San Francisco.

Five persons were injured, and four automobiles, including a police car, were wrecked or smashed, and Mrs. Fred H. Hunter, a wealthy widow, 132 Commonwealth avenue, San Francisco, was arrested on a charge of reckless driving in a dual accident which occurred at Post and Hyde streets, that city, early yesterday morning.

FIVE HURT IN CRASH.

The injured are: POLICE CHAUFFEUR JAMES McMAHON, double fracture of right leg and contusions of the body.

HERBERT E. ANDERSON, Olympic Club, contusions and abrasions.

STEPHEN A. PACE, Ambassador Hotel, San Francisco, contusions of the body and lacerations of the face and hands.

HARRY STILES, same address, cuts and bruises.

HARRISON TATE, same address, cuts and bruises.

The first accident resulted in the arrest of George V. Nichols, 559 Twenty-ninth street, on a charge of reckless driving. In the first crash machines driven by Pace and Nichols came together with terrific impact and turned over on five passengers. In addition to the two drivers, a patrol wagon from ing to the scene of the crash and pedestrians hurrying to the aid of the victims, a large limousine, driven by Mrs. Hunter, and according to the police, without lights, came hurtling down the Post street hill into the traffic jam.

Three men were hurled to the highway and suffered cuts and bruises when the automobile in which they were riding skidded and turned over last night near the Southern Pacific depot at Antioch. The machine was driven by Frank Arriba, who was accompanied by Andy Cook and John Bogwick, all of whom reside at Antioch.

Theodore Pinther, 124 Dolores street, San Francisco, an optician, and his 10-year-old daughter, Jeanette Pinther, were injured yesterday when the father lost control of the automobile he was driving and it crashed into a pole on upper Market street, San Francisco. Mrs. Isabelle Fritz and her son, William T. Fritz, owners of a hotel at 730 Eddy street, received serious injuries yesterday when their truck at Van Ness avenue and Fulton street, San Francisco. Fritz is suffering from serious bruising and lacerations and his mother from concussion of the brain. The driver of the truck was J. P. Mandotte of Colma, according to the San Francisco police report.

During the World war about 600 American soldiers lost their lives.

Cole's Hot Blast Ranges mean perfect cooking and baking

Cakes and pies beautifully browned, roasts cooked to perfection and light fluffy biscuits are results that every housewife wants. Cole's Gas Ranges insure these because the oven is evenly heated, due to a continuous circulation of fresh air throughout the oven.

In addition to this feature, Cole's Hot Blast Ranges are equipped with improved burners that mix gas and air in correct proportion to make intense heat with gas economy. The oven depth being two inches greater than that of other ranges, the larger sized roaster is easily accommodated.

Made in full enamel, semi-enamel and plain finish.

Wedding Is Social Event In Manila

Announcement of the wedding of Miss Margaret Rand to Ensign Sydney Serrill Bunting, U. S. N., in Manila, P. I., April 5, has reached their friends. The service took place in the Cathedral of St. Mary and St. John, Bishop Gouvernor Mosher officiating. In the absence of the bride's family, she was given in marriage by Commander Vernon of the U. S. S. "Pecos." Ensign True of the U. S. S. "Rizal" was best man for his fellow officer. The bride wore a frock of white lace and pink horsehair hat material with pink roses. Her shower bouquet was of orchids and gardenias. The reading of the ritual was followed by a reception at the Army and Navy Club. On their honeymoon Ensign Bunting and his bride motored to Baguio, a fashionable mountain town.

resort, for the service set. Later in the summer they will sail for China.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Emory Elliott are to be hosts at a dinner at their home in Alameda in honor of Daulton Harrison, who will leave for England in a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott have bidden a group of the intimate friends of their honor guest who expects to spend several months abroad.

JUNE WEDDINGS ARE PLANNED

Among the June brides will be Miss Katherine Bentley and Raymond Phelps of New York, who are to be married June 8 at St. Luke's church in San Francisco. Mrs. Stanley Powell is to be matron of honor and among the bridesmaids will be Miss Elizabeth Mages, Miss Newell Bull, Miss Adrienne Sharp and Miss Margaret Bentley, Geraldine Grace and Barbara Semon and Mesdames John Boyden and Hugh Porter.

Another summer wedding will be that of William Hall Moreland Jr., son of Bishop Moreland, and Mrs. Moreland of Sacramento, and Miss Blanche Highley. The bride-elect is a graduate of Stanford University and an Alpha Phi sorority member. Moreland is a University of California graduate and a Del Upsilon fraternity man. Moreland served in the French and American air services overseas for a number of years.

DINNER FOR DEPARTING GUESTS

Mrs. Frederick Osgood will be hostess Wednesday at a dinner at her home, complimenting Mrs. W. E. Montgomery, who is to leave for South America May 26 for a three months' sojourn by way of the Panama Canal, and Judge Lincoln Church who is to leave for the East shortly.

The San Francisco Alumnae Chapter of the Kappa Alpha Theta will convene this evening at 7:30 o'clock in Berkeley for its regular monthly session. The meeting will be held at the Theta Center, 2425 College avenue.

Mrs. Willard Williamson plans to spend the summer with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pope Talbot, in Cambridge, Mass. In September the Talbots expect to come to California on a visit to their kinsfolk. Both are students of architecture. Mrs. Talbot holding degrees from both Bryn Mawr and University of California.

In June the Charles Lovells of Piedmont will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hayne and their young daughter, Mary Hayne, from Indianapolis. En route the Haynes will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hill, who have a new home in Los Angeles. The Hills

Miss Ruth Taylor and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willard Taylor, will leave May 17 for the East. In their absence their summer place in the Santa Cruz mountains is to be taken by Mr. and Mrs. Chesley John Roberts (Berkeley Taylor).

Tomorrow afternoon a card party will be given by the women of the new parish of Our Lady of Lourdes around the lake district. The affair to be held at the Oakland Club in Montecito avenue. Mrs. James Cookley is chairman of the reservation committee which includes Mrs. John Parker, Mrs. J. D. McCarthy, Mrs. Thomas P. Hogan Sr. and Mrs. John Fearn.

Miss Alison Stone entertained Saturday evening in honor of Miss Jane Howard and her fiancé, Frederick Reimers, at a dinner-dance at the Fairmont. Among those who crossed the bay for the affair were the Misses Margaret and Jane Howard, Miss Jean Cliff Seales, Miss Vivienne Baxter, Miss Jean Webster and Messrs. Frederick Reimers, Edgar P. Stone, Will McKee, Loriston Moseley, Ellery Stone and James Bruce.

STORE IS LOOTED

NEED FOR LABOR ALMOST AS BIG AS DURING WAR

More Than Thousand Gain Employment at Oakland Office Alone.

The demand for labor is almost as great in Oakland today as it was during the war, according to Mrs. Helen Power, manager of the local office of the Public Employment Bureaus of the state of California at 401 Tenth street.

During the past week positions were found for 1024 men and women by the local office alone. Mrs. Power announced today. This is an increase of more than 7 per cent over the figures for the previous week, and 40.7 per cent higher than for the corresponding week of last year, showing a steady rise in the demand for employees throughout the past twelve months.

The total for the month of April, according to Mrs. Power, was 3455, which is 46.9 per cent higher than that for April, 1922. Since the beginning of the present fiscal year, July 1, 1922, positions have been found for 28,121 men and women through the Oakland office.

Similar conditions obtain throughout the state, according to C. B. Sexton, state director of employment, who reports that the business done by the eight offices under his jurisdiction was 90 per cent greater this year than last.

"How do you cure rose leaves for making a pillow?"

Rose leaves may be prepared for a pillow in the following manner: Fresh roses are better than withered flowers. Remove the petals, and allow to dry on papers, or on a table in a cool, dry airy place. After they are dry, place them in a large glass jar, sprinkling salt over them in 1/2-inch layers of the petals. This may be added to from day to day, until the jar is full. Allow them to stand in the jar 10 days after the last are put in. Spices may be added the same as in a rose jar: 1/4 ounce of mace and 1/2 ounce of all spice and cloves, all coarsely ground, or, in a mortar also a half a grated nutmeg; 1/4 ounce of cinnamon; 1 ounce of powderedorris root, and 1/4 pound of dried lavender flowers scatter these through the rose leaves, and place in a flannel flowered lace cover, or two thicknesses of lace net. It does not retain the odor as long as a rose jar, but is dainty and pretty.

How many times have you really wanted something? Don't complain of "never having a chance." Your wants can all be gratified in the Want Ad Section of the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, the meeting place of buyer and seller.

Some time ago pa bought a little grocery business that was advertised in the Tribune. By inserting a business card in that paper he has developed such a business that he needs a new delivery machine. He watches the want ads daily, because he knows there are bargains to be found there.

Since pa has made such a success, ma that we could afford to buy a new home. Of course there are so many new things that one must have to go with a new house, pa said "no." Ma finally convinced him that we could buy the needed extras through The TRIBUNE want ads at very little cost.

Just after that sister decided to take piano and vocal lessons. She found a competent instructor who advertised under "Instruction." I wanted a bicycle for some time and I finally found a slightly used one, very reasonable, advertised under "Misc. for Sale"—well pa bought it for me.

It seems that we all were "headed right" so we joined the thousands who read the want ads daily in the

IN 1878. The Herald, Washington, D. C. is greatly concerned over the "communist movement" in California. It would seem, then, that Bolshevism is an old story. Says the Herald's correspondent:

"It is not yet believed the communists are strong enough alone to accomplish such mischief. But they have many allies, and understandings with secret political organizations in the West as would lead those to co-operate with them. The Nationalists are largely composed of people who are not ready to break with those whose aim, as they say in the West, is a general division of property. There is an impression in official circles that the Communists have set the month of June for such an uprising as they can effect."

"The only other strange organization, having the most desperate chiefs, are likely to break off. Though much apprehension exists, law-abiding citizens are not unprepared for resistance and to take matters in their own hands, and teach the lawless class a lesson." There it is in a nutshell. The California spirit. A determination to settle the thing the shortest way. The undying heritage of the pioneer stock, and of those days when man made and carried out law by might. As the Herald was saying, "We are quite able to take care of ourselves and any trouble that comes along. This is OUR problem. Leave us alone."

Anyway the Communism of 1878 came to nothing. It just petered out. History repeats it Yesterday was Saturday. Sunday is different from Saturday because the Sunday school takes up a lot of time. A time and his father is home and everybody is dressed up and feeling grouchy.

My hair is too short yet for my mother to hold out. When she told me for Sunday school she has to hold onto one of my ears. They are kinda sloppy when they are soapy but she has now found a way to double one of them around one of her fingers and she can hold it. I don't like it and I cannot jerk it loose. When she had let go of me, and threw me the towel to get the soap out of my eyes with I got to thinking what it would do to her if I had long pants. Then I had an idea.

When she went to the room and I swept all the safety pins I could find and went upstairs and took off my suspenders and let my britches down till they reached my feet. Then I pinned them to my shirt and went back to the room and lay on a long pair of pants. It would be better, good idea only the seat all watching me take off my shoe and stocking, when all at once Youniss gave a scream and a war-howl and clawed at the back of her dress. Then she hiked for home howling at every jump.

When I was surprised, but I had my foot bare by that time and I told the Lost Bag of Tripe to bring on his bee. He kinda turned his eyes away and said it had got loose, and right then I knowed what had happened to me. I was so surprised I was by the look in my eye what I was going to do to him and he hit the ground moving. If I had had my other shoe and stocking off I would of got him. I ran him around his block three times. I was so close I could see his teeth, turn into his gait till his mother came out and I had to leave.

I went to bed and pulled Jubilee up as soon as it was 9 o'clock. I was gina noboby asted me to sing I do not think I could have sang if Youniss having got a stang that way.

A protest against statements said to have been made at a recent meeting of the board of education to the effect that the teachers of the Oakland public schools are banded together into a political organization was made today at a meeting held by teachers of the Oakland High school. The protest was in the form of a letter to the board of education. The communication follows:

"To Board of Education:

"We, the teachers of the Oakland High school wish to submit to you an emphatic protest against the statements repeatedly made at the recent meeting of your honorable body by Directors George Ormsby and Fred M. Campbell that the teachers of the Oakland public schools are banded together into a political body under the leadership of the superintendent of schools.

"We protest in particular against the statement read by Director Ormsby at the meeting of May 5, in which she charged that teachers were coerced into signing resolutions endorsing Mr. Hunter. No action of ours has been of the kind that should be interpreted by any one as to quote Director Ormsby, 'evidence in the power and personnel of the political machine which has been organized in the public schools.'

"We have never been subjected to the slightest pressure for the purpose of obtaining our signatures to any statement, and we resent strongly and deny any action of the kind which you have stated, except of our own free will. We are citizens of the State of California, and as such we reiterate our right to express our own free convictions."

The letter bears the signatures of the Oakland High School faculty members.

OAKLAND GROCER SUES WHOLESALER

Failure of the Greasy Corporation of Wilmington, Del., to continue maintenance of a warehouse in Oakland through which retail grocers could secure merchandise on a cooperative plan, is made the basis of a suit for $300 damages filed today on behalf of G. A. Forry, Oakland grocer.

The complaint charges the defendant corporation with using force to secure $200 membership in the corporation from over 100 retail grocers in the East-bay district.

Forry claims that when he became a member on December 5, 1920, the corporation had a warehouse here and claimed that the required number of 200 retailers had become members. The warehouse was closed on November 1, 1922, Forry alleges that it was never a part of the corporation to maintain it continuously.

Complete Pardon Is Given Bigamist

Announcement was made today by the Nevada state board of pardons of a complete pardon granted to Stephen Currie, Jr., former bigamist of Oakland who was sentenced to a prison term of five years and to pay a fine of $500 following his plea of guilty to a charge of bigamy.

Currie married a young woman from Sparks several weeks ago while under the impression that an interlocutory decree of divorce granted his wife in Sacramento was a complete divorce.

The district attorney announced that he had been convinced that Currie's act was without intention of bigamy.

Currie was formerly an employee of the Southern Pacific Company in Oakland, where he is engaged in mining activities.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will cause your hair to fall out if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to destroy it. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary household arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely destroy and destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. No matter how much dandruff you have, this simple remedy never fails. — Advertisement.

Now of the Churches

Love Best Cultivated Close to Home

"Some people talk of a comprehensive love, wide as the world, embracing the race. Yet they neglect the love of those who are closest to them, those of different habits, tastes and character," said Father Barrett at St. John's church, yesterday.

"If one cannot begin by loving the friends and relations close at hand, how obviously impossible it must be to realize that love on more magnificent scale. God calls us from the realm of imagination to a narrow field of possible achievement, where our love and kindly feeling will tell with power and tangible effect."

Heaven's Bliss Not Delayed, Says Snape

"There is no warrant for believing that the happiness of heaven is deferred for a single second beyond death," said Dr. John Snape yesterday morning at the First Baptist church, speaking on the theme, "Heaven—When Is It?" He said in part:

"Krupp, the German gun-maker, wouldn't have death mentioned in his establishment. He ran away from his own dying relatives; yet 'Emerson, after the death of his beloved and gifted wife said, 'What is excellent, as God lives, is permanent; hearts are dust hearts love remain; hearts' love will meet again.' And Whitier believed that 'somehow, somewhere meet we must,' and added 'Alas, for him who never sees the stars shining through his cyprus trees, who, by his, looks, the future looks to be the breaking day."

"There is no warrant for believing that the happiness of heaven is deferred for a single second beyond death. Purgatory is a horrible and repellent. It offers a false hope of salvation after death, and the pains of purgatory differ from the pains of the damned only in duration."

"Faith comes first—and last to the Christian. If heaven is a dim and distant imagination to you, you may call it back to faith. How? By realizing God's presence through the centuries, by recalling God's specific promises, by recalling God's precious promises."

Pastor Analyzes Christian Healing

"Will all use of medicine be finally discarded?" asked Rollin K. Tuttle yesterday at St. Stephen's M. E. church in the first of a series of lectures on "Christian Healing." In part he said:

"Over a mantle in Harvard Medical School is a motto which reads, 'The doctor uses the word and God heals it.' Cooperation with God is the key to the universe as well as to health. This is God's world. It does not belong to a bad God."

"Some will ask, 'If God made a good world, did he make sickness and evil?' Man wishes them on himself by failing to co-operate with God's plan, by misusing the powers God has given him. When will it be a disgrace to be sick. Once sick the healing of the body is the matter of co-operation with the provisions God has already made for health. Science is every learning new ways. The world today against nature means simply indicates that men are seeking to find their way to other realms. Will all medicine be finally discarded? Healing by physical and material means will be discarded next Sunday night."

Regeneration Declared World Need

"The world is not something to be made better, but to be overcome," said Rev. Willard Fuller at the Golden Gate Baptist church yesterday, speaking on the theme, "The Church and the World." He said in part:

"This world boasts of its wisdom, but again the word of inspiration is, 'Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?' The world by wisdom knew not God."

"Now what should be the believer's attitude toward this great world-system, which we are told by our Saviour himself, 'hates me? It is a world of sinners, come from the New Testament. Love not the world. Keep unspotted from the world.'"

Pastor Tells of Real Christianity

"The spirit of love as commanded by Christ is the thing that both the church and the world are dying for," Rev. Edward C. Phillee declared last evening at the Centennial Church, speaking on the text: "This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you." He said in part:

"Evidently, our Lord wanted above everything else in the world that his disciples should love one another, and that, so, they should demonstrate to the world the value of a life of love. His whole career emphasized this."

"And, after all, what does this old sin-cursed and sorrowing world need today if it doesn't need just this? What's the matter with the world, anyhow? Isn't it just that we cherish hatred and suspicion and selfishness and fear, rather than good will? And is there any remedy for all our manifold ills apart from the principles that Jesus Christ laid down so many centuries ago? Can there ever be permanent peace between the nations without active good will? Shall we ever see our race problems, and our class problems, solved on any other basis?"

"Grant that there seems to be little hope, for the present, that the world will ever adopt His principles. The nations and the classes may try everything else first, as men have always been prone to do, but they will have to come to this at last, or perish."

"Now, Jesus indicates that the result aimed at in His revelation of the love of God is just that we may catch the sun's spirit and love one another. Your sin and mine, your faith and mine, are empty and worthless things unless they diminish our hatreds and our suspicions and kindle in their place active good will toward all mankind. Were a long way from that now, as sure as you and I are here, we are due to face the facts and let us dedicate ourselves to God for just that sort of a life. This is real Christianity, and it is the thing that both the church and the world are dying for."

Evolution Known in Dawn of Ages

"The man who goes back into the jungle is a criminal, the man who breaks free and puts God on top in his life becomes a Christ," said Dr. Frederick Vining Fisher yesterday morning at the First Congregational church, taking as his subject "The Fall of Man," the first of a series of sermons on "Discarded Doctrines." In part he said:

"Evolution was in the misty folk tale of the race thousands of years ago."

Legend of creation in Genesis and the stately poetical putting of it are both shot through with the rise of man up from the depths of the jungle, but old and crude as these legends are, they lay beyond the science and philosophy of today in which vision as they came down the years God made man in His image. Man is the animal with a future. "Some men give up the fight and surrender to the beast within and become beasts or worse than beasts. One man came clear out of the jungle and stood in the open of God and was tempted in all points like as we are—yet without sin, and he rose far above us that for centuries we have tried to prove him of other flesh than us for His life is a challenge and indictment of our weakness and defeat."

Scout Official Will Visit in San Jose

SAN JOSE, May 7. — Lorne Barclay, director of the national education department of the Boy Scouts of America, will be the honored guest of the local Boy Scouts' council tomorrow evening, speaking before the scoutmasters and other scout officials. This address will follow a number of committee meetings and conferences tomorrow afternoon and will also be after the address to be delivered by Barclay before the San Jose Exchange club.

Barclay is visiting a number of cities and towns in the west on his way to Yosemite, where the annual regional conference of scout executives will be held under his supervision from May 14 to 17.

Religious Partisanship Dangers Told

"If a man like Percy Stickney Grant feels that he cannot accept the doctrine of the deity of Christ, he should leave the church and not trouble its peace," said Dr. Frank M. Silley yesterday morning at the First Presbyterian church, speaking on the subject, "Going to your own House," the theme being "The Dangers of Religious Partisanship."

"A stormy session of the ecclesiastical court was held in which Jesus was roundly condemned and denounced. The only one friend that court, Nicodemus, pleaded that He be given a hearing, but the bitter religious hatred of the Sanhedrin would listen to no plea for Christ. The court broke up, and Jesus went to the Mount of Olives alone. The members of the Sanhedrin went to their comfortable homes. Behold the fury of religious partisanship and spleen and hatred! These ecclesiastical leaders who were supposed to stand for mercy and fairness and above all religion, exiled the only man in whom never one fault was found. The really great leaders of our race, the great teachers of the world, and unity—not theological bickerings and turmoil. It brings delight and rapture to the forces of the world to see the church fighting within itself. What we need today is a united church, consolidated and organized for the united task of bringing the kingdom of God into the hearts of men and nations."

REJECTED SUITOR SHOOTS WOMAN; CONFESSES DEED

tim in Ambulance.

LOS ANGELES, May 7.—Joseph Becker, real estate salesman of Salt Lake City, shot and killed Miss Jane R. Kelso here last night because she had broken her engagement to marry him, according to a confession the police said he made.

Playing took place on a high, secluded cliff in Ellysian park, where the couple went for a walk after dinner together, and where Miss Kelso was said to have rejected her intention, announced earlier in a letter to Becker in Salt Lake City, not to marry him.

After the shooting Becker walked a quarter of a mile through the park to a telephone and calmly called the police and asked them to send an ambulance. When it arrived Becker helped put Miss Kelso's body into it and gave himself up to the officers.

Becker said he was 40 years old and that Miss Kelso, who lived in Los Angeles, was 42.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 7.—The local city directory does not contain the name of Joseph Becker, reported in a Los Angeles despatch to have shot and killed a young woman because she refused to marry him.

BIG TIME PLAN IN NAPA VALLEY FOR OAKLANDERS

Vallejo, Napa and Calistoga
Prepare Welcome For Boosters.

Welcome is being prepared for Oakland business men when they go into Napa Valley this week on the Oakland Chamber of Commerce special. Each of the four towns at which the party will stop is arranging a special program in honor of the visitors.

From Calistoga, where the Oakland party will be guests of the St. Helena and Calistoga Chambers of Commerce at a luncheon Friday, comes word that this is to be one of the events of the year and that May Day has been postponed from May 1 to May 11 in honor of the Oakland men. Parades and exercises of the school children are scheduled to occur immediately after the arrival of the Oakland train.

In Napa, where the party will stay Thursday night, preparations have been made for a dinner at which the Chamber of Commerce and Kiwanis club will act as joint hosts, and in Vallejo, where the party will make its first stop, a luncheon has been arranged for Thursday noon.

Please observe these rules carefully in competing for the title prize. Violation of any of these conditions will disqualify your entry.

Answers must be written on postcards. No entries in envelopes will be received.

Titles must be written on the long way of the card. That is, from left to right in the same direction as this address on the opposite side.

Answers must be mailed. No cards will be received in person at the TRIBUNE office. This rule is made necessary in the event of two winning titles coming from the same cartoon, when the prior postmark must be the determining factor.

Titles must be addressed to Title Editor, Oakland TRIBUNE. Titles must not exceed twelve words in length.

They must reach The Oakland TRIBUNE by Thursday night following the Monday the picture is published.

One person may send in as many titles as he wishes, but only two on one postcard.

Postcards must bear only the title and the name and address and no message whatsoever.

A $10 prize will be awarded to the winner each week.

Winners will be announced each Sunday.

OPEN ROAD CALL WEEK IS PROVING GREAT SUCCESS

Motor Car Dealers of Oakland Take Great Interest in Movement.

By JIM HOUHAN.

The call of the Open Road Week, which opened last Saturday, on the row here, has proved a tremendous success. While the motor car dealers of Oakland did not transform their salesrooms into campfires and scenic show places, nevertheless, they are taking great interest in the movement.

There is great activity along the row this week, with many cars sold and many more to be sold. The desire to get out into the country has shown great results. You could see that by the number of automobiles on the roads yesterday. It took many minutes to pass Fruitvale avenue yesterday afternoon late, with the jam of traffic coming in from the country.

ROADS ARE GOAL

The call of the open road means much to the motor car owners throughout this part of the State. There are so many places to go with Oakland as the starting point. The roads are good, too.

People who buy automobiles now are more interested in making long trips than ever before. Motor cars on the roads report great sales so far of camping material and comforts of all kinds.

Motorists have begun to realize that they can go camping with ease and dispatch and that they can be comfortable, too.

MADE GREAT EVENT

San Francisco automobile dealers are making the Call of the Open Road Week a great event. Most of them have built great camping scenes in their salesrooms and have arranged for night illumination about the sport great sales so far of camping material and comforts of all kinds.

The call of the Open Road is well to answer it now, and be certain that you have a good time this season with your car.

You are interested in our public schools. See Page 15.—Advertisement.

Which way is Oakland growing?

Toward the hills!
Into the hills!
Any picture a few years old will prove that to you.

Toward Montclair!
Every fact of local development proves that, too.

Commerce Chamber Seeks More Members

VALLEJO, May 7.—A drive to increase the membership of the Vallejo Chamber of Commerce from 200 to 500 has been started and it is expected that it will come to a close early in June. The drive will be handled by the Chamber of Commerce members without assistance from the outside.

101ST BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

30,000 PERSONS HAVE SUBSCRIBED TO CHEST FUND

Campaign Will End This Week If Suitable Subscriptions Are Made.

"Make your Community Chest contributions correspond to that which you gave to all charities last year, and the Community Chest campaign will come to an end this week."

This was the announcement yesterday of W. W. Garthwaite, president of the Community Chest organization.

"We are well satisfied with the number of contributors," explained Garthwaite. "Up to date our records show that over 30,000 men and women have made contributions to the Community Chest. In the past, according to the best information we can obtain, but 7500 people have been bearing the burden of the Oakland charities. Now then, if everyone will make their contribution to the Community Chest campaign correspond to the sum which they gave for all charities last year, the Community Chest goal of $486,396 will soon be attained."

Announcement is made that the Community Chest campaign will continue with redoubled intensity this week.

The following contributions of $100 or more and the following list of subscriptions made by employees was announced this morning:

$500—Colonel Theodore Gier, Mrs. H. C. Tart.

$250—J. and H. Abrahamson, Cretz Tire & Rubber Co., $200—Mrs. W. S. Phelan, L. Scatena & Co., and A. Galli Fruit Company, Kaiser Paving Company.

$150—Chlorax Chemical Company, James H. Cobbledick Company, Empire Foundry Company, Golden West Brewing Company, James H. MacLafferty, A. L. White.

GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE

PROVES "KIDDIES' DAY" IS NOT "POLITICS"

Nettie M. Miller Replies to J. F. Chandler

Mr. Joseph F. Chandler:

In your statement "To the Voters" in Saturday's papers you say: "I have not a business which will allow me to entertain the public through the children, to influence votes."

Permit me to say that a more ungracious, unmanly or untruthful statement could not be made.

Miller's "Kiddies' Day" was inaugurated several years ago, Saturday's event, to which you refer, being the fifth annual celebration of its kind. The date of "Kiddies' Day" is always the first Saturday in May, and is contracted for one year ahead; 1924 is already signed up.

These facts effectively dispose of your insinuation that Saturday's festival was some kind of a special ruse to "influence votes" through the children.

True, "Kiddies' Day" is somewhat near the date of the city election, but I did not frame the city charter, although it is your privilege to move for a charter amendment that shall keep the two dates farther apart.

If you have never seen 30,000 kiddies as guests enjoying themselves in Idora Park you have missed something of supreme human interest. We regard this party as our individual "Community Chest," and it is surrounded with the "Chest" atmosphere. For instance, the Superintendent of Fred Finch Orphanage rang up and told me that over one hundred children were likely to be disappointed for lack of transportation to Idora. We told him to bring the kiddies and look to us for the fares, and an hour later I was welcoming the little folk on the grounds.

PRUNE RANCH OF 1250 ACRES IS PURCHASED

Smith of Oakland has completed the purchase of the 1250-acre A. M. Bammerley ranch five miles east of Woodland for the Sorosis Fruit company, which has been operating in the Sacramento Valley for 36 years, with its headquarters in Oakland. The entire tract is to be planted to prunes, according to B. B. Whitney, manager of the Smith interests, already in possession of the land here. About $150,000 will be expended in clearing a portion of the tract while the greater portion of it will be planted to prunes this year.

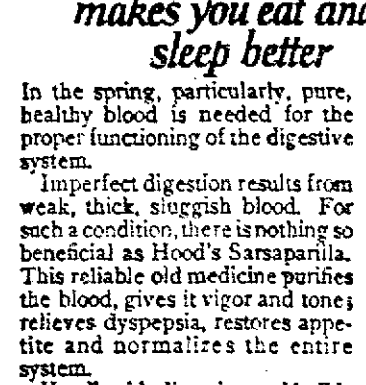

The tract is one of the best in the state for prunes, says Whitney. The deal has been pending for ninety days, during which time some fifty acreages in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys were inspected by the Smith interests in the hope to obtain an ideal prune location. Ridsdale and Giguere, agents for Smith here, state that the purchasers are so well satisfied that they plan further purchases in this vicinity.

MUNICIPAL UTILITY DISTRICT IS NOT NECESSARY

Read the FACTS Here Before You Vote Tomorrow

Must a 60 to 100 Million Dollar Bond Issue Be Voted?

The Municipal Utility District Election tomorrow is not a bond election--
BUT
You must be willing to vote $60,000,000 to $100,000,000 in bonds immediately, if the district is formed.

Formation of the district will tie the hands of the water company. Failure to vote the bonds will tie the hands of the district.

A water famine is certain unless you are willing to vote $60,000,000 to $100,000,000 in bonds.

The Harroun Report made to the East Bay Water Commission in 1919 says the cost of our participation in Hetch Hetchy will be $97,000,000. Add to this $35,000,000 for the purchase of the East Bay Water Company plant and the total cost, if El River is developed, amounts to $132,000,000.

The Harroun Report states that the first unit of El River will cost the East Bay cities $45,000,000. Add $25,000,000 for the purchase of the East Bay Water Company plant and the total cost, if El River is developed, amounts to $70,000,000.

Water Rates or Taxes Will Be Higher

The Municipal Utility District must pay at least $5,200,000 yearly for interest on $60,000,000 in bonds, repayments of bonds and cost of operating a water plant.

The total income from water rates in 1922 was $2,900,000.

Therefore, the district will lose $2,300,000 each year.

Water rates will have to be increased 80 per cent or general taxes increased to make up this loss.

Remember—three of the five directors have unlimited power to increase taxes to make good any money lost by the district.

The formation of the Municipal Utility District does not guarantee lower rates. The committee's report said:

"We concur in the views expressed by Mr. Harroun, although we do not subscribe to the idea, which might be inferred from his statement, that a greatly reduced supply can be secured at a low unit cost to the consumer than they now pay, unless a portion of the cost is secured from other sources than water rates."

In other words, water rates could be lowered, but tax rates would have to be increased.

Three Directors Have Unlimited Power to Tax the People

Five directors of the district have power to carry on unlimited investigations of public utility projects.

Where does the money come from to pay the cost of investigation? It comes from Taxes.

Three of the five directors have the unlimited power to tax the people. They can levy taxes without regard to existing tax rates. They do not have to consult the people.

Investigations may be made of all public utilities—telephone, gas, water, electric, electric power and railways, and street car lines.

If the district should lose money in operating a utility, who pays the Bill? The taxpayer. Directors have unlimited power to increase taxes to make up for money lost.

One must, or if funds are needed to carry out the object and purposes of the district, which can not be provided for out of the revenues of the district, then the board of directors may levy a tax for such purposes as herein provided."

A Municipal Utility District, Not Alone a Water District

You are asked to form a Municipal Utility District—not simply a water district.

Formation of such a district gives three of five directors power to dabble in all utilities.

Water is but the first step. Later three directors may decide to go into the street car, gas, electric power, telephone and garbage business.

Here is the provision of the Municipal Utility District Act giving the directors unlimited power:

"To acquire, construct, own, operate, control or use . . . works for supplying the inhabitants of said district . . . with light, water, power, transportation, telephone service or other means of communication, or means for the disposition of garbage, sewage, or refuse matter; and to do all things necessary or convenient to the full exercise of the powers herein granted; also to purchase any of the commodities or services aforementioned from any other utility district, municipality or private company, and distribute the same."

Can the Water Company Be Depended Upon to Develop Our Water Supply?

It is true that some additional water supply must be developed soon.

The present water company was the first one to recognize this fact. More than a year ago actual investigation for a new water supply were started by the company.

The water company, financially sound and well organized, is in a better position than we, to develop a water supply. Why should we mortgage our homes for at least $60,000,000 when the job of getting more water is now being done satisfactorily?

Some have asked the question—will the water company do this development work?

Read the following extract from the annual report of the president of the East Bay Water Company for the year 1922.

A sound judgment can be based as to the proper procedure of the company in the event that the public does not take over the responsibility for water service and it becomes the duty of the company to go forward. "The company is equipped for this investigation and for the bringing in of an additional water supply with a thoroughly competent trained organization, and the plans of the company contemplate that it shall be in a position to form a sound judgment as to future water supply and to proceed with expedition, economy and efficiency to carry out such plans as may be formulated."

You are now asked to form a district that will give three men unlimited power of taxation. Such a district is entirely unnecessary.

We earnestly urge you to "VOTE NO" on the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

SHELBY PROMOTERS TAKING BIG CHANCE ON CHAMPIONSHIP BOUT

Loy Molumby Makes Active Preparations
Jack Kearns Leaves for New York After Receiving An Additional $50,000.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Loy Molumby, state commander of the Montana American Legion, who with Mike Collins of Minneapolis represented Montana business interests in landing the world's heavyweight championship match yesterday between Jack Dempsey, titleholder, and Tom Gibbons, St. Paul challenger, scheduled for Shelby, Mont., July 4, left last night for Great Falls to complete plans for the contest.

He expressed himself before departing as well satisfied with arrangements made with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, and said he expected the receipts to reach the million dollar mark. As soon as he arrives in Great Falls plans for the arena will be drawn up so that a plot of seating arrangements can be made and tickets placed on sale at once.

Manager Kearns left today for New York and before he went was given another $50,000 by Molumby and Collins. This makes a total of $150,000 already turned over to Dempsey's manager, out of the $300,000 Dempsey is to receive before he enters the ring.

Kearns said the champion has already started to do light training in Dempsey City, Utah, and added that several sparring partners will be sent west in a few days to help prepare him for the big fight.

Collins will leave for Shelby on Tuesday to look after arrangements on the ground.

French Game of Rugby Too Rough
PARIS, May 7.—French rugby football has become so rough that the Rugby Federation is considering the advisability of reducing the rules so that the game may be played on a level and players guilty of roughing it.

Rough is not due to the rules governing the game, which is much more open than American college football, but to the rougher players, who are representing the different parts of the country. The referees are also inclined to be rather lenient, apparently regarding a straight arm jolt on the jaw as quite a proper method of tackling. An offending player is only ruled out of the field unless his opponent is rendered completely unconscious.

Plans Completed For Golf Tourney
PORTLAND, Ore. May 7.—Plans for the 1923 Oregon state golf championship meet on Waverley links here have been practically completed. The women's championship round will be played Monday, June 18, the first elimination round Tuesday, the men's qualifying round Wednesday, and the championship round Saturday, June 23. The day after the championship round, the men's championship round will be played Sunday, June 24.

Confirmation of Articles Received
Continuation of the series of articles for his fight July 4 with Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing champion, have been received by Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul challenger, from his manager, Eddie Kaye.

Gibbons will spend several days at his new home before going to his summer cottage at Osakis, Minn., for a ten-day rest.

OAKLAND AND BOSTON GOLFERS VICTORIOUS ON LINKS IN ENGLAND

Neville, After Getting Off to a Bad Start, Recovers and Wins Over Lord Maidstones; Sweetser and Gardner Meet With Defeat.

By ROBT. E. HARLOW.
(International News Service Staff Correspondent.)
DEAL, England, May 7.—America got away to a running start in the British amateur golf championship today when Francis Quimet of Boston, one of the big guns of the team, and Jack Neville of Oakland, won their first round matches from English opponents.

Quimet, brilliant and erratic by turns, disposed of A. H. Read, of Sunningdale, by a score of four up and three to play, and Neville eliminated Lord Maidstone of Royal St. George's, an amateur of almost national reputation, by five up and four to play. Neville was more consistent in his play than the great Francis, but the latter was not forced to his best by Read.

Read was completely to pieces after making the turn for home and the best he could do was a five on the first of the hole. In the second round, Read was only one up at the finish of the first nine holes, went on to win easily.

The round was conducted under excellent conditions. The English players were divided into two groups, the Americans being concentrated in the center.

Neville Recovers After Making a Bad Start
Neville started badly against Lord Maidstone, hitting badly on all four holes. He recovered, however, and played a number of holes in the second round, and won the match by a score of five up and four to play.

Two of the big guns of the American attack along the British front, the two Americans, Read and Sweetser, were defeated in the first round of the British amateur golf championship. Sweetser, a former champion, was defeated by a score of four up and three to play.

An offending player is only ruled out of the field unless his opponent is rendered completely unconscious.

Hunter of California Among the Winners
Robert Hunter of California was another winner although his victory means the presence of another American in the final round of the championship. Hunter's margin of victory was 4 up and 2 to play.

Reggie Lewis, of Greenwiche, Conn., famous as the man who led the American championship in the United States, was defeated by a score of four up and three to play.

Pierce's Giants Win From Alameda Elks
Bitterness of the combined efforts of Rudy White and Eddie Gosan of the Alameda Elks, who were defeated by the Giants, was evident in the Alameda Elks 12 to 4 victory yesterday afternoon at Washington park. Alameda's score of 12 to 4 was a fairly scattered affair.

The game was a lopsided affair. The Giants scored 12 runs in the first inning, but first fielding error. The Giants scored 12 runs in the first inning, but first fielding error.

Injured Fingernail Stops Jack Dempsey
SALT LAKE CITY, May 7.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion boxer, has a slightly injured fingernail on his right hand and has discontinued training for a few days. The champion came to Salt Lake City yesterday for a round from his camp near Helper, Utah, and left this morning for Provo, Utah, where a celebration will be held in his honor tomorrow.

Dempsey said he will soon start training in earnest for his bout with Tom Gibbons on July 4.

Dr. Willing's Rise to Fame Was Unusual

Oregon Champion, Who Played Quimet to Standstill, Developed Rapidly.

Dr. W. Willing, Oregon state golf champion for the past two years, who led an international field at the end of the first day's competition at Sandwich, England, for the Royal St. George's Challenge Cup, has had a remarkable rise in the royal and ancient game.

Though he learned the fundamentals of the game in his early days, Dr. Willing did not play a full round of golf until about five years ago when he joined the Waverley Golf club. He quickly demonstrated unusual playing ability and attracted attention, not only for his long driving but for his accurate approach work and putting.

Dr. Willing won the first Portland city championship in 1920 and returned to 1922. Besides winning the state title two years in a row, he won two medal honors at the annual Pacific northwest championship at Victoria, B. C., last year with a card of 147, seven strokes ahead of the runner-up.

Making his first national championship appearance in 1921 at St. Louis, Dr. Willing tied in the qualifying round for ninth place with Willie Hunter, ex-British amateur champion, and George von Elm, of Salt Lake City. He eliminated Rogers, of Kansas, and Conner, of California, in the first round, but before the final round of the championship at Brookline last fall.

Dr. Willing's selection as a member of the Walker Cup team came as a surprise, but his performance on the British links so far has justified the confidence placed in him. He is the only representative of the Pacific northwest on the team.

Pierce's Giants Win From Alameda Elks
Bitterness of the combined efforts of Rudy White and Eddie Gosan of the Alameda Elks, who were defeated by the Giants, was evident in the Alameda Elks 12 to 4 victory yesterday afternoon at Washington park. Alameda's score of 12 to 4 was a fairly scattered affair.

The game was a lopsided affair. The Giants scored 12 runs in the first inning, but first fielding error. The Giants scored 12 runs in the first inning, but first fielding error.

Did Winter leave you with that tired feeling?
WINTER'S always wins! It builds nerve-power, counter-acting power. It builds up the system, tired men and women lack of pure, beautiful complexion, and makes the flesh firmer. Stronger and more useful nerves depend on blood. S. S. S. will improve your appetite and give you greater energy, strength and a more youthful appearance.

Grist for the Sport Mill

FROM the most talked about ball player in the country to an obscure auto camp grounds in the drop taken by the famous "Prince Hal" was featured on every copy page in the country and he was hailed as the greatest first baseman of all times. Today he is working in an auto camp grounds near the Rio Trees on the San Lorenzo River but few visitors recognize the former diamond star. Chase is still interested in the game that made him famous and played for the Felton Woodpeckers Saturday against the Santa Cruz Mules. He says he is in receipt of an offer to play ball and manage a club in Arizona but no date has been set for his departure. Chase was said to have saved a great deal of money while plying his trade in the big league, $250,000. The darnedest thing he has done in his life is as fast as he received it. The way of the transgressor is sure enough hard.

NEVILLE, QUIMET WIN FIRST ROUND MATCHES

SHELBY PROMOTERS TAKING BIG CHANCE ON CHAMPIONSHIP BOUT

Loy Molumby Makes Active Preparations

Jack Kearns Leaves for New York After Receiving An Additional $50,000.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Loy Molumby, state commander of the Montana American Legion, who with Mike Collins of Minneapolis represented Montana business interests in landing the world's heavyweight championship match yesterday between Jack Dempsey, titleholder, and Tom Gibson, St. Paul challenger, scheduled for Shelby, Mont., July 4, left last night for Great Falls to complete plans for the contest.

He expressed himself before departing as well satisfied with arrangements made with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, and said he expected the receipts to reach the million dollar mark. As soon as he arrives in Great Falls plans for the arena will be drawn up so that a plot of seating arrangements can be made and tickets placed on sale at once.

Manager Kearns left today for New York and before he went was given another $50,000 by Molumby and Collins. This makes a total of $150,000 already turned over to the $200,000 Dempsey is to receive before he enters the ring.

Kearns said the champion has already started to do light training in Dempsey City, Utah, and added that several sparring partners will be sent west in a few days to help Dempsey get into the best of condition.

Collins will leave for Shelby on Tuesday to look after arrangements on the ground.

Oakland Is Defeated in Annual Play

San Francisco Leads Local Men 88-69 in Bowling on Green

The first of the annual matches for the Bay Cities trophy took place Sunday afternoon on the Golden Gate park green between the Oakland and San Francisco bowling clubs. It is some time since an Oakland club won from San Francisco on their own green and Saturday's game was no exception. The match was a close one, Oakland at the close of the match being 19 points down on the total score, yet they won two of the four matches by the score of 88 to 69.

The teams, skiped by Howden for Oakland and Craig for San Francisco, were equally matched and a keen contest resulted. Throughout the game, Oakland being down 3 points on the twentieth end. By clever play, however, they succeeded in turning a seeming defeat into a victory by securing four points on the last end, 22 to 21.

Hamilton's team of Oakland found themselves opposed to what seemed a formidable four skiped by Hagle of San Francisco. Here the Oakland players fairly excelled themselves and were the only team to make a favorable showing on the right side of the ledger, winning by 27 to 8.

Easman of Oakland drew Fisher of San Francisco as his opponent, Oakland losing 26 to 12. Sweetman's team of Oakland found themselves in a similar position, the Oakland players falling down and the good work of the Hamilton team was offset completely, the final score reading 33 to 7.

Winners Will Be Sent to Chicago
LOS ANGELES, May 7.—Winners of all events of the California intercollegiate federation championship track and field meet, to be staged here next Saturday, will be sent to the national intercollegiate meet at Chicago in June, according to plans announced by officials of the federation. A few second place winners also may be sent as well as a complete squad from the high school making the best team showing. It was said.

Arrangements have been made for more than 15,000 spectators and the money taken in at the meet will be used to defray the expenses of sending a squad to the national affair.

More than 150 athletes, representing high schools in many parts of California, will compete.

French Game of Rugby Too Rough
PARIS, May 7.—French rugby football has become so rough that the rugby federation is considering the advisability of revising the rules so that severe penalties may be levied on clubs and players guilty of roughing it.

Rough is not due to the rules governing the game, which is much more open than American college football, but to the keen rivalry between clubs, representing the different parts of the country. The referees are also inclined to be rather lenient, apparently regarding a straight arm jolt on the jaw as quite a proper method of tackling. An offending player is his opponent rendered completely unconscious.

Plans Completed For Golf Tourney
PORTLAND, Ore., May 7.—Plans for the 1923 Oregon state golf championship meet on Waverly links here have been completed. The women's qualifying round will be played Monday, June 18, the first elimination round Tuesday, the men's qualifying round Wednesday and the qualifying rounds, thereafter, the championship closing Sunday.

HELP FOR THE MAN WHO WANTS TO BUILD

HOW TO KEEP DOWN YOUR BUILDING COST

This is the sixth of a series of articles to appear in this column on "How to Lower Home Building Costs," by the Architects' Small House Service Bureau of the United States, Inc.

In previous articles appearing in this column, it has been shown that by reducing your requirements, home building costs can be lowered. A number of items have been suggested which come up for consideration in the experience of nearly every home builder. The suggestions which follow are not building specifications, nor are the figures exact. They do, however, suggest in a general way where and how savings can be made if home builders are willing to reduce their requirements. Twenty-five suggestions were listed in previous articles. Others are:

25-In selecting your bath tub, lavatory and kitchen sink, you will find that you can have these made either of solid china or of iron coated with enamel. The china is more expensive than the enamel. It has certain advantages in the way of appearance and ease of keeping clean, but the enamel is durable and far less expensive.

27-A recess bath tub will cost from $30 to $40 more than a leg tub. Observe the different materials and designs in which these fixtures are offered. There is a wide range of expense.

28-Vitreous china lavatories, however desirable their qualities, cost more than the enamel on ones. There is an item of approximately $15 to $20 here. The "pop-up" type of lavatory costs from $3 to $5 more than the chain and plug device. Consider whether or not you can afford a pedestal lavatory. The wall hung type will cost you less money.

29-All enamel iron plumbing ware is made in many designs, some of them with aprons or fronts, and some of them with simple rims. The rimmed types cost much less than the others.

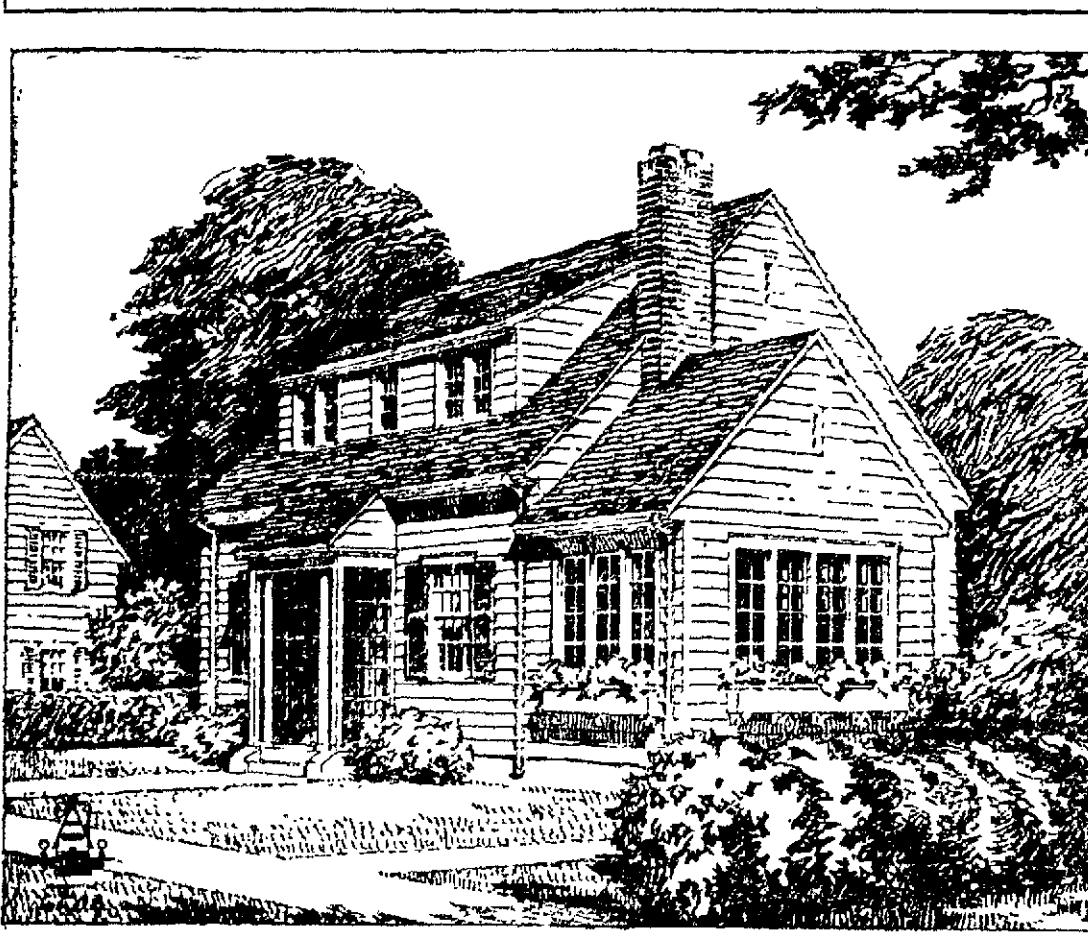

30-There are a great many types of water closets, tanks and seats. The simple ones are satisfactory if well made. You can save $25 to $50 by selecting a simple and economical fixture of this kind.

31-The kitchen sink usually is made of enamel iron. Sinks with aprons or with drain boards cost more than either of these. A wooden drainboard is less expensive than one of enamel iron. Combination hot and cold water faucets will cost from $5 to $10 more than separate faucets.

There are items of expense about the heating plant which you must consider. Personal preferences usually are quite fixed in regard to the kind of heating system that must be used. You may not be able to get the particular kind of heater you prefer. In order to have your house you must be prepared to accept elsewhere throughout the building, to take what you can afford to have. It is advisable not to buy a cheap heating device of any kind, but if you are trying to reduce the heating expense to a minimum do not use expensive fixtures and equipment.

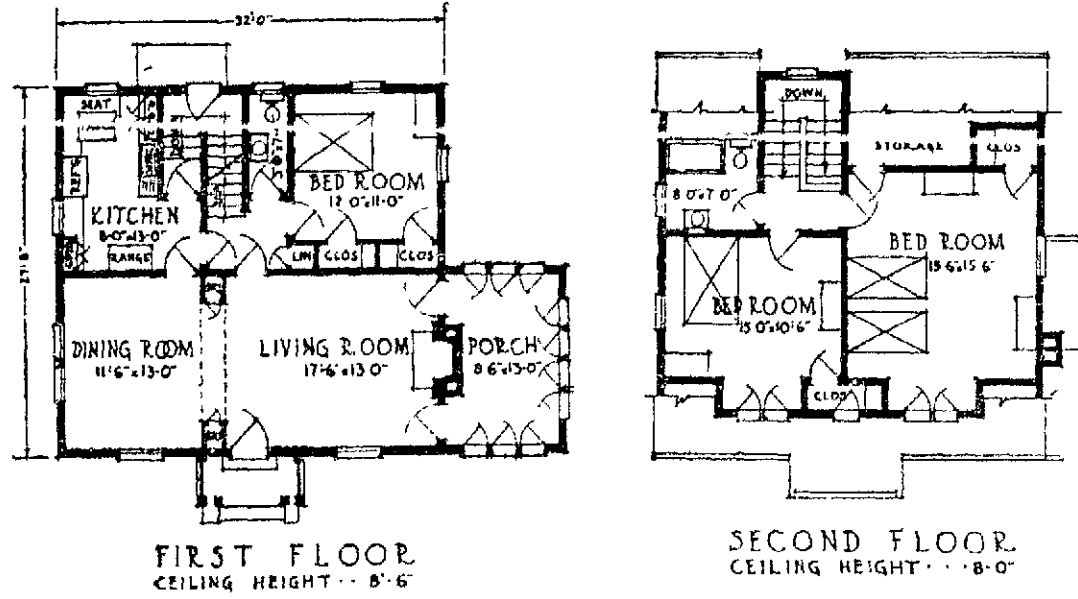

32-A heat radiator is a very desirable device. It will assist in decreasing your fuel cost. It may be outside of your initial expenditure. They cost from $50 to $100.

SIX GOOD ROOMS AND SUN PORCH

Copyright, 1923—Architects' Small House Service Bureau.

Plan No. 648.

THIS six room Dutch Colonial home of frame construction, eight inch exterior masonry, and flat base course, shingle roof, combines excellence of plan, economy of construction and beauty of design. It is suitable for almost every locality. It can be built on a 60 foot lot. By omitting the sun porch a 40 foot lot is wide enough. A full basement is provided.

A feature of the plan is the first floor bedroom and lavatory. There are two good sized bedrooms, a bath, plenty of storage space as well as closet space on the second floor. Each room in this house has outside exposure and cross ventilation.

For a house of this size and equipment, it would be difficult to improve upon this plan.

Build complete, ready to live in including heating, lighting, plumbing, but not including wall decorations.

Copyright, 1923—Architects' Small House Service Bureau—Home Builders' Office.

33-There are many forms of radiator valves—the leak proof type, indicator type, and others of a more simple kind. Compare costs.

34-The high type steam or hot water radiator costs less than the low type, but the former cannot go under windows. Consider this expense.

35-Automatic humidifying devices cost more than those you operate by hand.

36-The quality and degree of insulation you use on the heating pipes has a direct influence on the initial costs.

37-There have been listed in this column in the last three weeks some very practical ways to assist you in reducing the cost of your home. If you will go over each one of these items and see how in your particular case you can make it apply to your building, and then if you will learn from your contractor the amount of money saved by each one, you will be able to see just what the total sum saved amounts to. You can omit part or all of these. Your savings will range between $1,000 and $2,500.

WHAT YOU MAY WANT TO KNOW ABOUT BUILDING

Questions addressed to this paper will be answered by the Architects' Small House Service Bureau of the United States, Inc., certified by the American Institute of Architects and Indorsed by the Department of Commerce, United States Government. Enclose self-addressed envelope for reply.

Q—What is the best kind of a kitchen sink?

A—The simplest sink is one made of enameled iron with a roll rim. Additional expense is involved, though appearances are improved, by having a sink with an apron in place of the rim. To either of these forms may be attached wooden or enameled iron drain boards. The type of wooden drain board which is removable permits cleaning of the sink and is therefore very sanitary. Sinks with a drain board cast integrally with the basin are very neat appearing, sanitary, and durable, but some housewives object to them on account of the breakage of crockery which is likely to occur in connection with such a hard material. Consult your own idea of convenience in this regard.

Q—If you have a complete set of working drawings why do you need a set of specifications? Of what value are these?

A—The drawings carry only part of the information which is required by the contractor. They tell what to do rather than how to do it. The how is as necessary as the what. All of the general agreements which you will have with your contractor should be in writing. Such things as liability for damage, insurance, clearing the site, methods of payment and so on are included. These are part of the specifications. That document tells also what quality of materials is to be furnished. You invite trouble by building without complete specifications.

Q—Is it necessary to have a full basement in a desirable house?

A—A full basement is a desirable feature. If you are going to have any basement at all, we advise you to have it extend completely under your house. The extra expense in excavating and running a foundation wall down to the level required will not be excessive and you will have a much more desirable property.

Q—Why is it that houses are not being built with front porches more?

A—Probably one of the most important reasons for this is that the present prices of building materials are not able to assume at the present prices of building. Another reason is that many people prefer to have the porch at the rear of the house where there is greater privacy. In this position the porch serves as an outdoor dining room in the summer. It is difficult to accommodate the front porch to the design of a house so as to get a fine appearance.

Q—How large a house can I put on a 40 foot lot?

A—This is sometimes restricted by city ordinance. The maximum width of a one story or a two story house in many cities would be 33 feet over all. These should be kept at least three feet from the lot line. For a two story house 30 feet would be the maximum. This should be kept at least four feet from the lot line. If your house is to be put on a corner lot, it may be made a few feet wider than if on an inside lot.

EXTRAVAGANZA IS NEXT ON BOARDS
FOR U. C. ACTORSSeniors to Put On "But It Wasn't" At Greek
Theater Saturday.

BERKELEY, May 7.—"It might have been so, but it wasn't." Around this has been built "But It Wasn't," the Senior extravaganza of University of California's class of '23, to be staged with novel costumes and other attractive features in the Greek theater next Saturday evening.

Business men, poets and athletes from the stone age, the age of romance and the present-day strive for the hand of the same fair maiden, Mary, as played by Bernice Berwin.

In the Stone Age, J. Stonehatchet van Clumber, Mary's father, scorns the poet Clarence, who wastes good stones by carving bad verses on them, and despises the business man, John, who barter for his food instead of killing it. Thomas, who can tear a bear to pieces without batting an eye, is the favorite in this age.

Clarence, the troubadour, comes into his own, however, in the Age of Romance, when clubbing has gone out of style. Mary, now the daughter of the Duke of Blackmont, is charmed by the flowery words and beautiful songs of the wandering troubadour and chooses him in preference to the others.

The last scene represents the girl of today, still wooed by the same three types of men. In this age, however, the prospects of a comfortable home and a good income outweigh the poet's romance and the athlete's strength, and Mary chooses John, the business man.

Unusual choruses and elaborate costumes are to be features of the extravaganza. The stage settings are being carefully planned and will include the Green Lantern of the Stone Age and the University Library scene of the present day. The principals in the cast are:

John..... Baldwin McGaw
Clarence..... W. C. Pundt
Thomas..... E. S. Ciprico
Mary..... Bernice Berwin
Ellen..... Ursula Cheshire
Judith..... Mercy Meyer
Mrs. van Clumber..... Florence Ivanoff
Police officer..... Gavin Witherspoon
Hoopskirt girl..... Katherine Boardman

DANCERS.

Pageant..... Eileen Byrne
Apache dancer..... Virginia Byrne

Grand Jury Gets

Rabbi Lafee Case

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The county grand jury tonight will investigate the charge of murder against Chudwell G. Richardson, aged 19, deserter from the U. S. Naval Station at Goat Island, who has confessed to killing Rabbi Alfred Lafee in a downtown hotel over a month ago.

The diary found in Richardson's possession, in which the details of the killing of the rabbi are set down, will be submitted as evidence against the youth.

Should an indictment be returned Richardson will be tried immediately in the superior court. Richardson claims the rabbi attacked him.

FIGHTS OFF HODLERS.

Earl Reed reported to the police that two young men attempted to rob him of his wallet, which contained about $75, in a shooting gallery on Broadway. When the men attempted to take his money, Reed fought off the holdup men.

LAD BEATEN BY SNAKE.

Bruce Skaggs, 11 years old, is in Fabiola hospital, where he is being treated for a snake bite. While on a picnic with his parents at Moss Creek, Contra Costa county, the snake, believed to be a rattler, struck the boy on the left ankle.

Original Compositions Feature Music Week
Elaborate Programs Will Be Rendered

A program of original compositions presented by residents of the Eastbay regions under the auspices of the Alameda County Music Teachers' Association is an outstanding attraction in the wide variety of musical entertainments being offered tonight in connection with the observance of Music Week in Oakland.

Some of the best known musicians of the city will be represented both as composers and performers in the concert, which will be held in the Rose Room of the Hotel Oakland.

Numbers from seven local composers, M. Towler, Maurer Sabin, Mrs. J. G. Aylwin, Paul Martin, Alice R. Dean, J. Metcalf and Virginia Graham will be presented.

STUDENTS TO TAKE PART

Under the direction of Herman Trutner, 588 students enrolled in musical courses at the Oakland Technical High school will take part in a program to be presented Wednesday evening (not Friday, as previously announced) in the school auditorium. Original compositions of the students will be featured, and choral numbers presented by the girls' and boys' glee clubs.

Fupile of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music under the direction of Mrs. Rena Lazelle will take part in a concert in the auditorium of the Technical High school this evening.

Other concerts in celebration of the week of music will be presented by the Choral and Music sections of the Rockridge Woman's Club in the Olivet Congregational Church, and by Mrs. Ethel Long Martin, who will present a recital at the Berkeley Piano Club with the assistance of Mrs. Asa Henlon, soprano.

At the Press Club of Oakland luncheon piano recitals will be offered every day during music week by Vincent Fluno.

Ellie Miller, contralto; Harman Ulrich, pianist; Miss Hazel MacKay, lyric soprano and Jean Bachman, violinist, will take part in a concert to be given at the Park Boulevard Club this evening.

An equally diversified program will be presented by various musical organizations tomorrow. A program of the day's entertainments follows:

Organ recital by Mrs. Martha

Dukes Parker, First Baptist church, 12:15 p. m.

Organ recital by Alexander McCurdy Jr., assisted by Carl Edwin Anderson, tenor, at 3:30 p. m., First Congregational church.

Recital by students of Dorothy Passmore, 4 p. m., DeFramery studio, 77 Fairmount.

Recital by pupils of Joseph George Jacobson, of San Francisco, 8:15 p. m., South room of Hotel Oakland.

Recital by John E. Warburton, pianist, and Marie Partridge Price, soprano, 8:15 p. m., auditorium of Y. W. C. A. This is an entertainment sponsored by Japanese ladies. It is to be presented to an American audience.

Piano recital by Sergei Mikhailof of San Francisco at 8:15 p. m., Oakland club, Montecito avenue.

ETUDE CLUB CONCERT.

Concert by Etude Club, 8:15 p. m., auditorium of Technical high school.

The Mrs. Mackay-Contell Concert of forty voices, 8:15 p. m., First Congregational church chapel.

Other events for Tuesday, May 8, are: At the New Century club-house, Fifth and Peralta streets, Donzella Cross will entertain small children with music and explain the phonograph; time 2:30 p. m. Radio program, Tribune Station, KLT, from 8 to 9 p. m. (1) Analysis of orchestra by Herman Trutner, showing the string, brass and woodwind choirs, giving special attention to unusual instruments like the oboe, viola, etc.; (2) lecture by Glenn H. Woods on the Boy Voice and its changes; (3) Mrs. Agnes Ray, of state board of education, will give 5 or 10 minutes' talk on legislation in regard to public school music. Special music at the weekly luncheon of Ad Club.

ANDRADE FACING
JURY THIRD TIME

Charged with the embezzlement of $49,500, Jesse Andrade, former paying teller and assistant cashier of the Oakland branch of the Bank of Italy, faced a jury in the superior court today. This is the third time Andrade has been tried.

The first case was on a charge of falsifying public records. On that charge he was acquitted. Being placed on trial on the embezzlement charge, he was found not guilty on two counts and the jury failed to agree on the other four.

When the case was called today Attorney Peter J. Crosby made a formal motion that the defendant be jeopardy.

Superior Judge P. R. Parker, who is here from Mono county to hear the case, denied the motion, stating that this plea, together with the charges in the indictment, will be tried simultaneously.

Those Hungry Shingles

TWO HOUSES stand side by side. They began life to gether seven or eight years ago, spick and span and new. Today, one is sleek and prosperous, the other drab and weather-beaten, its surface a mass of tiny mouths crying out for food. The shingles have been starved, and if that well-nourished look is to be restored, they must be fed with a coat of

BASS-HUETER
Superior Shingle Stain

The beauty of a shingled house lies in the soft homeliness of the rough-sawn surface. To keep this, the shingles must be stained, not painted. They must be fed with a coat of penetrating protective stain. This is where Superior Shingle Stain will prove its worth to you. It is made from chemically pure greens and genuine English oxides, finely ground in pure linseed oil to which is added cresolates and preservative oils. Used over shingles or rough-sawn lumber, it produces rich color effects without hiding the grain of the wood.

Whether you are planning to restain the old shingles on house or roof, or to stain the new, insist on having Superior Shingle Stain. Ask for a color card showing the various colors stocked on real wood
